Redefining outdoor luxury

Moments of tranquility, connection and fascination are what matter most in life. At Manutti, we are convinced that outdoors, under the energising, radiant sun is the best place to enjoy these moments in the presence of the people we love. With our luxurious furniture designs, we seek to inspire, delight and bring people together outside.

Furniture isn't simply where we sit, eat our meals and recline: it constitutes a vital frame for our experiences – especially in the company of others. This is why we blend functionality and ease-of-use with beauty, imagination, and superior design in our tables, chairs, loungers, sofas and footrests.

In the upcoming 2024, we promise you an unparalleled experience. Immerse yourself in the journey of Muyu, our latest collection that embodies the essence of craftsmanship. Muyu presents a captivating range of lounge pieces, complemented by an exquisite coffee table and a refined dining chair. Discover the allure of Yiko, a dining chair harmonizing teak with a wicker seat, an embodiment of both elegance and comfort.

We also have exciting additions to our existing collections. In the Sandua collection, we proudly present our new lounge chair - a true embodiment of innovation. The Fuse collection, known for its stylish cushion boxes, now includes a fresh color, flint.

As always, Manutti is as versatile as you are. With exclusive, timeless pieces that best suit your way of life, taste and desire for comfort ... wherever you are, from sunrise to sunset.

Yiko[•]

Designed by Stephane De Winter

available 2024

Elegance and curved lines from every angle and exceptional seating comfort were the drivers behind the design of Yiko. The seat – woven in a recycled two-tone wicker – evoke a familiar sense of nostalgia, and offers exceptional comfort. The teak frame hints at both traditional craftsmanship and pure, Japanese-inspired minimalism. Available in warm teak natural, Yiko effortlessly complements both classic and modern environments.

Sandua[•]

Designed by Robin Hapelt

It is a thing of beauty when craftsmanship and innovation combine in perfect harmony. Distinctly different from one another, yet perfectly in sync, each piece in the Sandua collection is an ode to true artisanship. An organically shaped woven shell is cradled by the sculpted wooden base. Designer Robin Hapelt developed a both modern and unique take on traditional weaving techniques, using not one, but two different materials, resulting in unmatched aesthetics as well as comfort. Topped off with opulent cushions, Sandua radiates sophisticated splendour.

Materials & Fabrics

Manutti prides itself in selecting only the best raw materials and finishes for its furniture. Our wide range of fabrics and materials has been carefully designed and engineered to withstand the harshest weather conditions, guaranteeing years of outdoor luxury.

For the 2024 season, we are thrilled to introduce two exceptional additions to our extensive selection of high-quality fabrics. Ginger sand and copper dust are intricately woven from 100% polypropylene fibers and have undergone UV treatment for added durability. Furthermore, we are excited to present two new collections, each featuring carefully handpicked materials that embody their own unique essence. Yiko comes with its own kind of premium-quality wicker, while Muyu introduces us to a new type of textylene rope.

More details as well as an overview of our entire collection of fabrics can be found on www.manutti.com/materials.
